NORWOOD'S SPECIAL RECOGNITION OF LJW MEMBER'S CONTRIBUTION

Marylin Graham, who has been volunteering for Norwood as an enthusiastic befriender for more than 20 years, received the Special Commendation Award at Norwood's fifth annual Volunteer Recognition Awards, held on 11 September at Allianz Park in Hendon. Marylin has a special relationship with the adults she visits at a Norwood home in Ilford and has known some of them for most of their lives. She organises a tea party once a month, buying and preparing the food and arranging entertainment that she know the residents love, sometimes with the help of other LJW members from the Chigwell and Hainault group. Marylin's Chanukah party is a focal point of the year.

Early September President Yvonne Josse attended a Cyber Security Seminar put on by the CST (Community Security Trust) held at JW3. Topics covered included Online Threats, Social Media Security, Cyber Security and Mitigating personal threat with involvement from speakers from the Metropolitan police, an international cyber security organisation and sessions from the CST Research and Security departments.

With GDPR or General Data Protection Registration due next year and concerns about Cyber security, informing our membership about the effect this will have on all of us is imperative. To this end an invitation has been sent to the CST to join us at our forthcoming Open Forum on 30 October. Please make sure that you too have a representative at our first ever Open Forum to which all members and non-members are invited. Places are limited so please confirm your attendance to the office as soon as possible.

The Way Ahead volunteers had previously been recognised individually including a number of members for the Queen's Diamond Jubilee Volunteers. The Harrow Heroes Dinner was attended by over 200 people.
